

PREMIERE RETAIL REAL ESTATE FIRM BROADENS CAPABILITIES

Northwest Atlantic (Canada) Inc. Brokerage, a leader in the retail real estate sector, today announced that Patricia Scrivener, formerly Director of Development Franchise Relations & Legal at The Body Shop, has joined with Northwest Atlantic effective February 12th, 2007 in its Mall Services division.

Patricia has been actively involved in the retail industry for over 20 years. While holding progressive management roles in retail store development and lease negotiations, she has forged strong relationships with many leading Canadian landlords. Patricia, who is also well known in the franchising community, is a past chair of the “Canadian Franchise Association.”

“Patricia Scrivener has a long and distinguished career in the retail industry with experience in both real estate and operations. This experience will add further depth to the Northwest Atlantic team,” says Tim Sanderson, Principal/Broker.

“We continue to provide our clients with the best service and support in the industry,” says Dianne Lemm, Partner, Mall Services adding that “I am thrilled to have Patricia join as Director, Mall Services.”
